

NAME

George Washington
&
James Madison

VS.6a

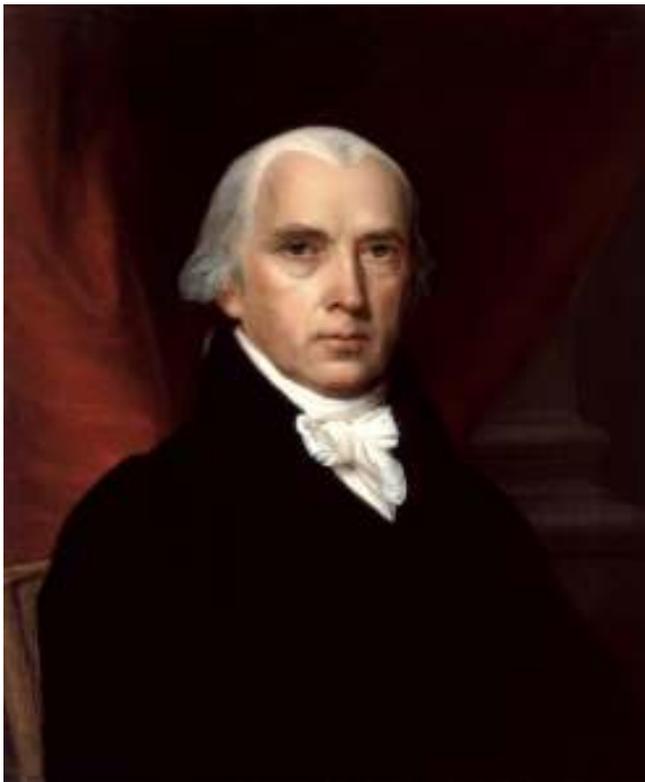

The _____

- When the war ended, the colonies began to work together. They wanted to build a new _____ with a new form of _____. In _____, each new state sent its greatest statesmen to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania for the _____. These statesmen were going to write a new plan of government and new laws for the new nation. This new plan would be called the _____ Constitution.

Greatest Statesmen

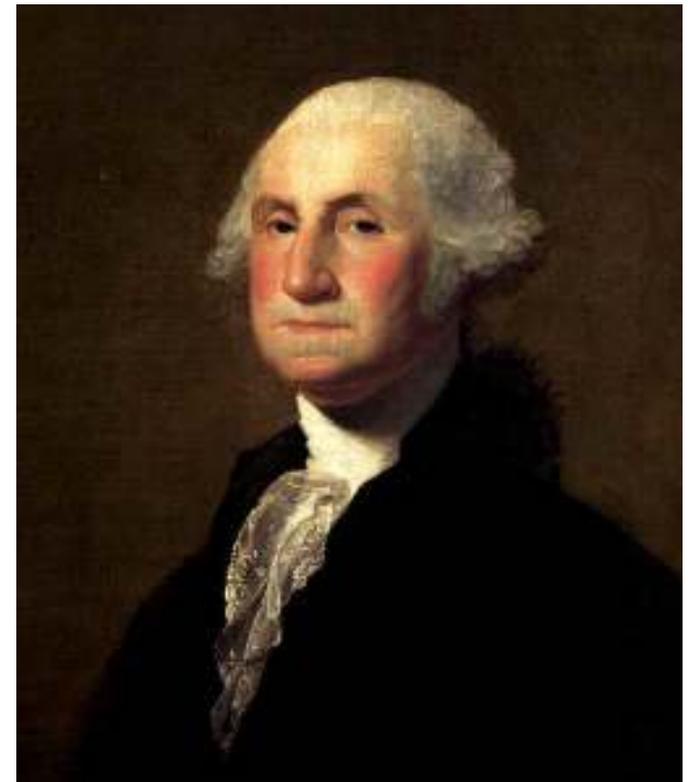

- Virginia was lucky because they had two of our country's _____ _____ at the convention. They were _____ _____ and _____. Their actions and ideas helped to form the new constitutional government for our nation.

James Madison

George Washington

-
- James Madison, a _____, was one of the statesmen present at the Constitutional Convention. He believed in the _____ of having a _____. His skills at _____ helped the delegates reach agreement on many issues during the difficult process of writing the new government.

_____ of the _____

- He also kept _____ during the Convention and thanks to those records, we know much about what was said and done during this exciting time in our country's history.
- His hard work and great ideas during the Convention earned him the title “_____ of the _____.”
- He was also our country's _____ president!

- George Washington was another _____ present at the Convention. He was chosen to _____ the work of these brilliant statesmen. The Convention ran through the hot _____ of _____. When it ended in September, a _____ had been created. Under this new government, the _____ were given the right to _____ the _____ they wanted to lead them. There would be _____ ruling the United States.

_____ of Our _____

- In _____, George Washington was elected as the _____
_____. His _____,
_____, and _____ during and after the Revolutionary War made him the first choice of the people. They knew he would provide the _____ needed to help the young country survive and grow. He would also serve as a _____ of leadership for future presidents.
- Because of his many contributions, he is called the
“_____ of Our _____.”