

NAME

Virginia Declaration of Rights & Virginia Statute for Religious Freedom

VS.6B

- The United States Constitution set up a _____ where the _____ were given the _____ to _____ and _____ those who would _____ them. They were also given _____ to do certain _____. These freedoms were located in a section of the U.S. Constitution known as the Bill of Rights. Many of the ideas that can be found in the Bill of Rights originated from two earlier Virginia documents: the Virginia _____ and the Virginia _____ for _____.

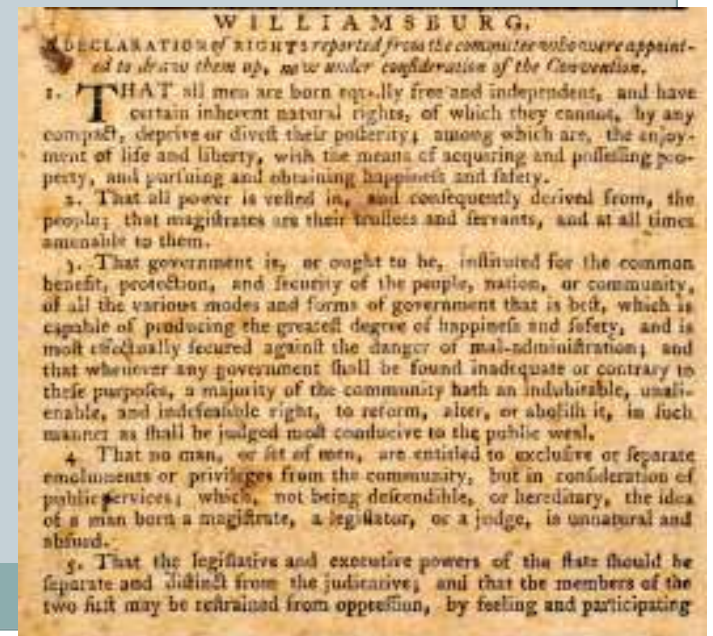

The Virginia Declaration of Rights

- The Virginia Declaration of Rights was written by _____ in _____. This document stated that all Virginians had _____ that _____ be _____. Freedom of _____ and freedom of the _____ were just two of the rights listed in this paper.

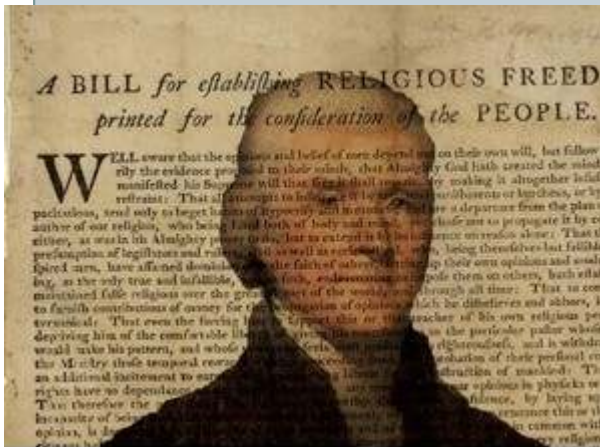

George Mason

Virginia Statute for Religious Freedom

- Another Virginia document was also used in the writing of the United States Constitution. This document, the Virginia _____ for _____, was written by _____. It stated that all people should be _____ to _____ as they please. This meant that no one could be punished or have their rights taken away because of their _____.

Models for the Constitution

- The ideas expressed in the Virginia Declaration of Rights and the Virginia Statute for Religious Freedom provided important _____ and served as _____ for the _____ of the _____ of the _____ of _____.

