

NAME _____

VIRGINIA'S ROLE IN THE CIVIL WAR

VS.7B&C

-
-
- On the morning of _____ 12, _____, _____ cannons fired on the flag of the _____ as it flew above Fort Sumter in the harbor of Charleston, _____. As the _____ and _____ prepared for the bloodiest and most tragic war ever fought by _____ soldiers, Virginia's men and women took sides in the fighting.

QUESTIONS

- When did the Civil War begin?

- _____, _____

- Where did it begin?

- _____

- Where is Fort Sumter?

- in the harbor of _____, _____

THE _____

- Most _____ Virginians supported the _____ _____ raised _____ and provided _____ for the Confederacy in many different ways. Some _____ _____ felt their _____ rights could best be protected by supporting the _____. Most _____
_____ did not take sides during the _____
_____.

QUESTIONS

- Which side did most Virginians support?
 - The _____
- Why did they support the Confederacy?
 - Because they wanted to be able to use _____ _____ on their _____ and

- Why did some free African Americans support the Confederacy?
 - They felt their _____ could best be protected by supporting the _____
- On which side were the American Indians?
 - Most of them _____

VIRGINIA

- During these four bloody years, _____ became a _____ for many different fights.

1864 Virginia Civil War Battlefield Map – these were the battles that happened in 1864...there were a lot more than this over the course of the war.

QUESTION

- When did the war begin?
 - _____, _____
- We'll learn when the war ended at the very end.

OF

- The _____ of _____ was the _____ of the _____ General _____ “ _____ ” played a key role in this battle. Thomas “ _____ ” earned his nickname when he was _____ in the _____ but continued to shout orders as the firing continued. Another Confederate general who was retreating with his men under the heavy Union fire called out, “Look yonder! There’s _____ standing like a _____ !”

QUESTIONS

- What was the first major battle of the Civil War?
 - _____ of _____
- Who played a key role in this battle?
 - _____ “ _____ ” _____
- How did he earn his nickname?
 - Another _____ general who was retreating with his men under the heavy Union fire called out, “Look yonder! There’s _____ standing like a _____ _____!”

_____.

- Like Thomas “Stonewall” Jackson, _____ was a general in the _____ army. _____ the fighting started, he was asked to lead _____ forces against the _____ but refused. Even though he was against slavery he said, “I could take no part in an invasion of the _____.” Lee took command of the _____ of _____ and defeated Union troops at _____, Virginia. In February 1865 he was named general-in-chief of all _____ armies.

QUESTIONS

- Who was Robert E. Lee?
 - a _____ in the _____
- Which army did he lead?
 - The _____ of _____, and later the _____ Army
- Was he for or against slavery?
 - _____
- Where did he defeat Union troops?
 - _____, _____

_____.

- The _____ had its share of war heroes. One such hero was

_____.

_____. President

_____ gave General

Grant _____ of all _____ troops. Near the end of the war, the

_____ evacuated

_____, which was then

the _____ of the

_____. Grant led

the _____ army into the _____ city.

QUESTIONS

- Who was a Union hero in the Civil War?
 - _____.
- Which troops did Grant lead?
 - All of the _____ troops
- What happened near the end of the war?
 - the _____ evacuated _____, the _____ of the _____. Grant led the _____ army into the _____.

VS.

- Important _____ also occurred at _____.
President _____ used the _____ navy to _____ ports. A major sea battle between two _____ ships, the
_____ (_____) and the _____ (_____), took place in _____ waters near the present day cities of _____ and _____. The battle was fought to a _____ (no one won the battle!).

QUESTIONS

- What important battle occurred at sea?
 - _____ vs. _____
- How did President _____ use the _____ navy?
 - President _____ used the _____ navy to _____ ports.
- What were the names of these two ironclad ships?
 - _____ (_____) and
_____ (_____)
- Who won this battle?
 - It was a _____ (no one won the battle)

- _____
- The _____ ended at Appomattox Court House, _____ in _____ of _____.
_____ General _____.
_____ sadly _____ his beloved Army of Northern Virginia to _____ General _____.
_____. When Grant heard the artillery booming to salute the _____ over Lee, he sent orders for it to stop saying, "The rebels are our _____ again. We can best show our joy by _____ to _____ their _____."

QUESTIONS

- Where did the Civil War end?

- _____

- Who surrendered?

- _____
_____.

- When was the war over?

- _____ of _____