

* Virginia's Economic Development after the Civil War

VS.8c

NAME _____

Virginia's Economy is _____

*Virginia's economy began to _____ in _____ the _____. The changes affected the areas of _____, _____, _____ and _____. The changes helped to _____ the _____ of _____.

Questions

*What began to grow after the Civil War?

*

*What helped to improve Virginia's economy?

*changes in _____,

_____ and

* _____
Railroads were one main reason for the _____,
_____, _____, and _____ expanding.

* _____ centers attracted _____ and factories attracted _____, _____, and _____. Getting to _____ was necessary to _____ and _____ were now making it _____ to get to the _____.
Railroads also supported _____ _____ as they crisscrossed Virginia and the nation.

Question

- *What was one reason cities, businesses, industry, and agriculture expanded?
- *There were more _____ which made it _____ to get to the _____.

Things are growing

*With more _____, _____, and _____ moving to _____ and _____, small towns grew into cities and the need for _____ and _____ increased.

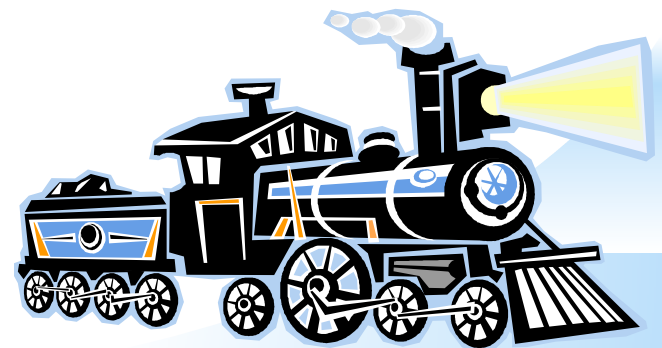

Question

*What increased as more people, businesses, and factories moved to towns and cities?

*the _____ for _____ and _____

*Other regions of Virginia also grew after the war.
_____ deposits were discovered in _____. This helped to stimulate the growth of the _____ industry.
The discovery of coal also affected the economy of other parts of the state. _____ carried the coal _____ to the growing seaports of the _____ region where it was _____ to the rest of the _____.

Questions

*What was discovered in Tazewell County?

*

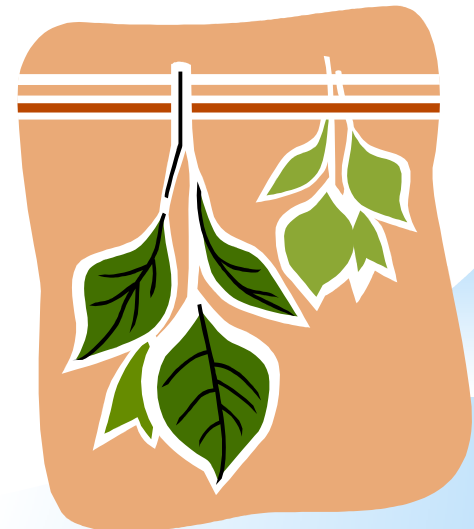

*How did this discovery help Virginia?

*It helped stimulate the growth of the

*

_____ and _____ _____ became an important _____ in Virginia once again. With the help of the railroads, tobacco became a _____ that could be sold and shipped in large amounts. Because there was a _____ of tobacco, industries that _____ tobacco products _____ as well.

Questions

*What kind of farming was becoming an important industry again in Virginia?

*

*How was the tobacco shipped?

*Mostly by the _____

