Character Poem

Like poetry? Here’s a chance to write a poem from the point of view of one of the characters in your book.

You Should:
- Write your name, date and the period on your work.
- Write your final copy neatly or type it on a computer (if you type it, use a size 12 font that is easy to read and double space your writing).
- Write the title and author of your work at the top of your poem.
- Follow the instructions on the back of this sheet of paper.

Tip:
- This project will be easier if you pick the main character or another important character from the book.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Writing</th>
<th>Quality</th>
<th>Completeness</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Writing has no major spelling, grammar or punctuation errors. Writing is interesting and easy to understand.</td>
<td>All writing is neat or typed.</td>
<td>All parts of the project are complete and meet all requirements (has the right amount of sentences and information).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>Writing has some (5 or less) spelling, grammar or punctuation errors. Writing gets the point across but may be confusing in one or two places.</td>
<td>Most of the writing is neat (although there are a few sloppy places).</td>
<td>Missing one part of the project. Project meets most of the requirements (might be missing some of the required sentences or information).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>Writing has many (5 or more) spelling, grammar or punctuation errors. Writing does not grab the reader’s attention and is hard for the reader to understand.</td>
<td>Most of the writing is sloppy.</td>
<td>Missing more than one part of the project. Project barely meets the requirements (missing a good deal of sentences or information).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>Writing has so many spelling, grammar or punctuation errors that it distracts the reader. Writing is boring and hard to understand.</td>
<td>Writing is so sloppy that it is hard to read.</td>
<td>Missing most of the parts of the project. Included parts do not meet requirements.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Below C</td>
<td>Writing has so many spelling, grammar or punctuation errors that it distracts the reader. Writing is boring and hard to understand.</td>
<td>Writing is so sloppy that it is hard to read.</td>
<td>Missing most of the parts of the project. Included parts do not meet requirements.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Character Poem Format

Use this template to complete your poem. You can include more information if you want to, but you must have at least all the information that is listed below. YOU MUST REWRITE THIS POEM. YOU MAY NOT JUST FILL IN THE BLANKS AND TURN IN THIS PIECE OF PAPER!!!!

Book Title and Author

Line 1: I am __________________ (name of the character)

Line 2: I am __________________ (four words that describe the character)

Line 3: Who loves __________________ (two things or people the character loves or activities the character loves to do)

Line 4: Who hates __________________ (two things or people the character hates or activities the character hates to do)

Line 5: Who feels________________ about __________________ (something the character feels strongly about)

Line 6: Who fears __________________ (something the character is afraid of)

Line 7: Who'd like to see __________________ (something the character would like to see)

Line 8: Who dreams of __________________ (something the character dreams about)

Line 9: Who ends up __________________ (what happens to the character at the end of book)

Line 10: I am __________________ (name of the character)